The following is a phase diagram of the Brooklyn Treatment Court (BTC).
Phases of Treatment at BTC

Phase I: Choice
- BTC Focus: Encouraging and Facilitating the Client's Choice to Live Drug Free
- Objectives:
  - Acquisition of Identification
  - Entitlements, etc....
  - Link to Health Care
  - Detoxification
  - Placement in Community Based Treatment
  - Establishment of Abstinence
  - Development of Trigger Awareness
  - Attainment of Early Coping Skills
- Advancement Requirements:
  - 4 total months sanctionless time
  - Ability to set forth one's achievements in Phase I and goals for Phase II

Phase II: Challenge
- BTC Focus: Assisting the Client in Rising to the Challenge of Recovery and the Process of Beginning Community Reentry
- Objectives:
  - Continued Abstinence
  - Establishment of Recovery
  - Stabilization in Treatment
  - Identification of Outside Support Systems
  - Development of Educational and/or Vocational Plans
  - Reconnection with Family
  - Participation in parenting skills, domestic violence, and anger mgmt workshops
- Advancement Requirements:
  - 6 total months sanctionless time (misd)
  - 8 total months sanctionless time (felonies)
  - Ability to set forth one's achievements in Phase II and goals for Phase III

Phase III: Change
- BTC Focus: Community Reintegration and Promotion of Continued Change
- Objectives:
  - Internalization of Recovery Tools
  - Continued Abstinence
  - Pursuit of education and/or vocation
  - Reconnection and re-integration with community at large
  - Continued progress towards independent daily living skills
- Graduation Requirements:
  - 6 total months sanctionless time followed by 2 months monitoring (misd)
  - 12 total months sanctionless time followed by 3 months monitoring (felonies)
  - Participation in a community service event
  - Completion of treatment program or support of program for BTC graduation
  - HS Diploma or GED
  - Submission of a Life Plan

[Back to Sample Drug Court Materials from the Drug Court Clearinghouse and Reference Collection]